

Learning Exploration: Me & My Friends

Recognising the brilliant aspects of our personalities and the qualities we admire in our friends will be at the heart of this topic. We will be looking to celebrate the achievements of individual success whilst encouraging pupils to recognise the achievements of others.

Journey through the exploration

This exploration will focus on three areas:

- 1) Teamwork
- 2) Getting Along
- 3) Celebrating me

Linked subjects

Through this exploration, learning will be linked where appropriate, including in the following subjects:

- Knowledge and understanding of the world
- Expressive arts and design
- Personal, Social and Emotional Development

The following subjects will be taught discretely during this half term:

- Maths
- Food: social skills and language skills, specifically following instructions.
- Physical Development

Children will continue to work on their individualised targets based on the outcomes in their EHCPs, termly SEND plans and any reports from outside agencies.

Writing

In the Nest, we will be sharing different books about transport this term.

Children will develop an understanding of the different types of transport. They will use this knowledge to write for an audience in a class book of transport.

Across the term, children will start to write more at length building up to two or three sentences at a time.

Maths

Children will explore:

- Addition and subtraction
- Mass and volume
- Length and height

Opportunities to build cultural capital

Cultural capital is the essential knowledge that pupils need to be educated citizens, introducing them to the best that has been thought and said, and helping to engender an appreciation of human creativity and achievement.

At NCSPA, we aim to build cultural capital through experiences such as trips, visitors, music and providing local links.

This half term, options may include:

- Attending trips organised by the class teachers.
- Trips to Lampard farm starting in May.

Opportunities for shared outcomes

Children will have the opportunity to produce or take part in one or more of the following:

- Attending trips organised by the class teachers.

Opportunities to address Equality, Diversity and Inclusion

Through our PSED focus this half term, children will continue to be encouraged to recognise the achievements of others as well as themselves.
